5. Dig Garden Shop

425 NW 11th Ave., (503) 223-4443

Tucked inside a refurbished industrial building, Dig seems like the secret, slightly overcrowded backyard of an Asian mystic—though it's run by Portland native and landscape architect Thomas Adkisson. Find everything you need to put some Zen into your outdoor life, including bamboo fencing and urns big enough to hold a tree, as well as natural soaps and modern garden art from local artists.
